RESORT OVERVIEW

INNER VILLAGE

It's only human nature to want to be better, jump higher and ski faster. For the moments that you make it down a run and proudly look back up the slope and think, that felt good! That's what we're here for.

Everyone is different, and at SnowSports School we cater to everyone's needs. Whether you are new to the sport, just want to get down that double black diamond with ease, or be part of a group that explores the mountain together each week, we have a program to suit you.
