

SNOW SCHOOL ABILITIES CHART

Level 1 : First Timer

You have never skied or snowboarded before and want us to show you how.

Level 2 : Learn to Turn

You have been out before, but only once or twice or perhaps not for a number of years.

Level 3: Beginner

You're gaining more confidence in your turns and are looking to explore the green runs on the mountain.

Level 4: Intermediate

You have control on groomed blue runs but are looking to build on your abilities on bumps and hopefully head down the black diamond runs soon.

Level 5: Advanced

You can get down a Black Diamond run but you're looking to get down with more technique rhythm and speed.

Level 6: Expert

You are looking to find those new and challenging lines. Powder calls to you and you aren't afraid to go looking for it.
